

“Your book featuring artistic and tasteful pictures of women “top-free” who have had breast cancer, scares and etc. along with their stories demonstrate that breast cancer if caught early enough is highly treatable and lives can be saved.

It has the potential to go a long way to enforce the reality that reluctance and avoidance is not the answer, but early detection by way of appropriate medical diagnostic screening and testing is critical.”

Erica Dawson

Yale School of Management